Outcome Based Education (OBE)

- Outcome Based Education is an approach to education in which decisions about the curriculum, instruction and assessment are driven by the exit learning outcomes that the students should demonstrate at the end of a program or a course.
- In outcome based education, "product defines process".
- It is the opposite of input based education where the emphasis is on the teaching and the system is happy to accept whatever is the result.

Advantages of OBE

- Clarity: An explicit statement of what the education process aims to achieve, clarifies the curriculum for both students and teachers, and provides a focus for teaching and learning.
- Provision of a Framework: Outcome based education provides a robust framework for integration of the curriculum.
- Guide for Assessment: The outcomes provide the framework for student examinations.
- Facilitates Curriculum Evaluation: The outcomes provide benchmarks against which the curriculum can be judged.

Features of an Outcome Statement

- Should unambiguously state what the student should be able to do/perform.
- What the students do or perform are observable and measurable.
- Students should be able to understand what it means (comprehensible).
- Should be able to provide guidance to students in planning their learning.

Levels of Outcomes

- Program Educational Objectives
- Program Outcomes and Program Specific Outcomes
- Course Outcomes

Program Outcomes

- POs are statements that describe what the students graduating from any program should be able to do at the time of graduation.

Guidelines and Criteria

The list below is provided as a guide for individuals (or teams) responsible for planning and creating a mentoring program for their unit.

Six Essential Steps to Create a Mentoring Program

1. Define goals. Describe in 1-3 goals what the program would achieve.
2. Identify who the program serves. Identify who will be mentored and determine qualifications/criteria for selecting mentors (i.e. specialty within the unit or outside the unit - rank, academic or administrative required) or not.
3. Identify services provided. Discuss the areas of assistance provided by the program (i.e. clarification
