Objectives of the Workshop:

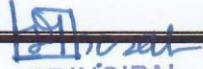

- To enable the learner to communicate effectively and appropriately in real life situations.
- To use English effectively for study purpose across the curriculum as a student.
- To develop and integrate the use of four language skills i.e. Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking.

Description of the Workshop:

While inaugurating this workshop, the principal of the college, Dr. Hansraj Thorat said that the four skills- writing, reading, listening and speaking are important to master the English language and if you want to master the language, practicing the above skills is very important. Expressing the opinion that not only English language but also Marathi and Hindi should be mastered, while imparting the language, he asserted that increasing the vocabulary of that language to the maximum and bringing it into daily use is absolutely necessary in modern times.

The chief guest of this workshop was Dr. Anand Kulkarni Head of Department of English - o Arts, Commerce and Science College, Narayangaon, Pune. He stated that keeping in mind the need and importance of English language in the 21st century; everyone should acquire knowledge of English language. The process of learning any language is like a journey and the most important thing while learning English is to understand it, practice it and apply it in everyday life. Learning any language requires loving it and adopting it. He highlighted the close relation between the culture and
